

New Marriage Books Released!

The Tulsa Genealogical Society is proud to announce the publication of the third set of ten Marriage Books extracted from the original Tulsa County Marriage Books. There is also a cumulative index covering the third set of Marriage Books.

The Tulsa County Marriage books began in November 1907, and transcription now includes a third series, dated from June 19, 1920 through July 18, 1923 (over 600 marriages in each Book). Individual Marriage Records consist of four sections: the Application, the Consent (if the groom was under 21 or the bride was under 18 years of age), the License and the Return by the Marriage Official.

Each section of the original 11" x 17.5" record has been extracted, with the Groom's name, his age and residence, the bride's name and location of the wedding, along with consents as needed, and any note containing extra information (coded with a number which corresponds to a Notes Index listing). The Bride's section includes her age and residence, The groom's name and the witnesses with their places of residence. A final column indicates a number which corresponds to the wedding official, listed with name and title in the Officials Index. Often, family relationships are identified in the consents and are potentially realized among the witnesses.

An Index to the ten volumes has been prepared for Marriage Books of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, Books 21 – 30. Both Grooms' and Brides' names have been listed, along with the Volume that includes the marriage details. Each book is then alphabetized by Grooms', then by Brides' names for easy look-up.

The quality of these Marriage Books matches the work from earlier TGS Series, Books 1-10 with Index, Books 11-20 with Index, created by a team of volunteers who have extracted, transcribed and proofed all entries. This project team included Linda Talbott Brown, Charles Catlin, Arlene C. Huerter Crawford, Norma Kramer Grace, Fay Rene Irwin Hanks, Jae Jaeger, and Renee' Devin King.

The Society is grateful for the help of the Tulsa County Clerk and the County Records Warehouse Staff who assisted retrieval of these documents. The original documents are available in Tulsa County Marriage Books stored at the Tulsa County Records Warehouse 2929 B East Apache Tulsa, OK 74110
